

Expolingua Berlin 2018: the must-attend International Fair for Languages and Culture

UAB Idiomas Barcelona will be attending one of the most important events in the field of learning and teaching foreign languages, international travel and global cultures, addressed to students, teachers, parents, professional and executives, translators and interpreters.

In Expolingua Berlin 2018 there will be lots of workshops, seminars and performances with extensive information on international, local and online language courses, internships abroad, working overseas and general information about travel and cultures. UAB Idiomas Barcelona will provide detailed information about Spanish Courses and our teacher training programmes. Pascal Shaw, the school Director, will lead a presentation on the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona (UAB), the study opportunities in Barcelona and specifically the Spanish courses at the University language centre in Barcelona.
